To Whom It May Concern,

My son had the wonderful opportunity to train with Sensei Moore in New York for over five years before Sensei Moore relocated to Florida. I can honestly say his students miss him terribly. The instruction and guidance Sensei Moore gives to his students is extraordinary. He holds each individual to a high standard. He not only teaches them the art of traditional karate, weapons, and sword, but he also teaches and demonstrates life's lessons in honesty, respect, responsibility and integrity. Sensei Moore also places a strong emphasis on maintaining a good education and becoming a well rounded individual. He works his students hard during class, but makes it fun, interesting and diverse. He is fair to all.

Without a doubt, Sensei Moore would not disappoint you with his vast knowledge, compassion and talent of karate. Grab hold of this great opportunity and enjoy.
